Register of legal persons

The register of legal persons is a basic register according to Act No. 111/2009 Coll., on basic registers, which records reference data. The administrator of the register of persons is the Czech Statistical Office. The primary editors are authorities and institutions that are already legally obliged to register persons. These include the Commercial Register, the Trade Register, registers or information systems of selected ministries and central government bodies, professional chambers, municipalities, regions, etc. The Ministry of the Interior with the Data Box System (ISDS) is the secondary editor.

The subjects of the data kept in the register of persons are:

- legal entity,
- organisational unit and organisational unit of a legal person,
- organisational unit of the State,
- an internal organisational unit of an organisational unit of the State, if this internal organisational unit is entrusted by law with its own competence,
- an entrepreneurial natural person,
- a foreign person and an organisational unit of a foreign person,
- a trust fund, if they are entered in the register pursuant to this Act or another legal regulation.

The reference data on legal persons are:

- business name or designation or name, if applicable, and surname, if the natural person engaged in business is not registered in the Commercial Register,
- the name or, where applicable, the first and last names of the natural person engaged in business or of the foreign person and the organisational unit of the foreign person; if the person is entered in the population register, this data shall be kept in the form of a reference link (agency identifier of the natural person) to the reference entry in the population register,
- the agenda identifier of the natural person for the agenda of the register of persons,
- person identification number,
- date of creation or date of registration under other legislation,
